

FROM THE CONGRESS ST. SUPERETTE... RECOMMENDED BOOKS

Museum Wharf
300 Congress Street
Boston, MA 02210
(617) 426-6500

The Bakery Factory by Aylette Jenness. Thomas Y. Crowell.
Photographs and text show the commercial bread-making process, from flour truck to supermarket shelves. (Elementary)

Be A Smart Shopper by Kathryn Gay. Messner.
Explains advertising psychology, comparative shopping and consumer protection and advises the reader in being a more responsible shopper. (Elementary.)

Growing Food, Growing Up by Esther and Birdina Lewin. The Ward Ritchie Press.
An activity book to growing foods and making nutritional snacks. (Pre-school through the intermediate level.)

Love At First Bite by Jane Cooper. Alfred A. Knopf.
Presents easy recipes that use basic cooking techniques and need little adult supervision. Preschool through Jr. High level.)

Stores by Alvin Schwartz. MacMillan Publishing Co., Inc.
An inside look at the day to day operations of forty stores. (Intermediate, 4th grade through Jr. High level.)

Where Does Food Come From by Althea. Dinosaur Publication, Ltd.
Explains where processed foods come from and how they get to the grocery store. (preschool 2nd grade)

The Supermarket Handbook by Nikki and David Goldbeck. The New American Library.
A valuable guide to buying whole and natural foods from the supermarket shelves. Provides useful information on recognizing harmful additives. (Adult Reading)

THESE BOOKS ARE AVAILABLE IN THE RESOURCE CENTER.