A FESTIVE DECEMBER SCHOOL VACATION WEEK SCHEDULED AT THE BOSTON CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

Boston, December 7....Capture the seasonal spirit with a visit to the Children's Museum during its holiday performance specials through December 31 featuring music, mime, puppets, clowns, and more.

Afternoon performances include the antics of John Nolan as Jup the Clown, the juggling of Dario, Olof, and Eddie G., plus the magic and music of Jerry Vovscko.

To help spread the holiday cheer, choruses from Boston public schools will sing Christmas carols at the Museum Tuesday and Thursday, December 15, 18; plus Tuesday and Wednesday, December 22 and 23 at noon.

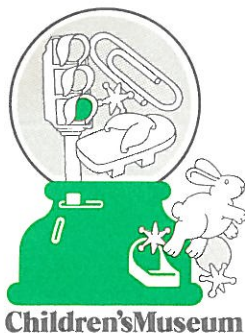

Enjoy the wonderful images of Dylan Thomas in the Thumb Tack Puppet Theater's production of "A Child's Christmas in Wales," Thursday, December 24, 1 and 2 pm, featuring puppets, music, and a special visual attraction.

A special screening of the classic Walt Disney film, "Peter and The Wolf," with music by Sergei Prokofiev will be shown Saturdays and Sundays before Christmas on December 12, 13, 19, 20, at 1, 2, and 3 pm; and during school vacation week December 28 through December 31 at 12 and 1 pm.

Other holiday performances are presented at 2 and 3 pm each day and include:

Thursday, December 24, Larry Sayco, yo-yo maestro.
