

Children's Museum

Museum Wharf, Boston 426-8855

Mouthwatering Summer Specials

STEVE SHAKESPEARE AND FRIENDS

Every Saturday in June, July and August
Enjoy the mime, juggling and just plain clowning around of Steve and his surprise guests. Shows are at 11:30am, 12:30, 1:30 and 2:30pm. Tickets are 75¢.

BACKSTAGE WITH THE GERWICK PUPPETS

Every Tuesday in July

Enjoy this delightful puppet thriller as Mary Lou and Bruce, stars of many Gerwick Puppet shows, solve the "Missing Wood Mystery." Puppeteers Lenny Gerwick and Deborah Costine will also demonstrate puppet techniques, answer questions and show how different kinds of puppets are made. "Missing Wood Mystery" is shown every Tuesday at 11am and 2pm; demonstrations are at 12:30pm and 3:30pm. Show tickets are 75¢; there's no additional charge for demonstrations.

More events over!

DOG DAYS MATINEES

Weekday afternoons in August

Four classic children's films:

Aug. 3-7, "The Red Balloon"

Aug. 10-14, "The Little Prince"

Aug. 17-21, "Really Rosie"

Aug. 24-28, "Martin the Cobbler"

Films are shown at 1, 2 and 3pm; there's 75¢ additional charge above museum admission.

YO-YO CONTEST

Sunday, June 7, 2-4pm

Bring your yo-yo to the museum and display your talents at the Duncan yo-yo contest. Anyone can enter (no age limit) or just come down to pick up some tips. There's no entry fee and prizes will be awarded. Winners will go on to the City finals June 13, at Faneuil Hall Marketplace.

"EVERYONE LOVES A PARADE"

Wednesday, July 1, 11am-4pm

Join us as we celebrate our 2nd birthday at Museum Wharf with a parade party. Try some birthday cake, then don a party hat and join in a colorful and noisy parade with Tribal Rhythms. Bring along a kazoo, too.

Bring a picnic and enjoy your lunch outdoors on the Museum Wharf apron!

The Children's Museum is located on Boston's waterfront at Museum Wharf, 300 Congress Street.

Admission to the museum is $3.75 for adults, $2.75 for children, ages 3-15, and senior citizens.

